Classic Glass Doin' Charleston

For the fifth year, the Coastal Carolina Corvette Club with be hosting their all Corvette show on April 21st and Classic Glass will be attending as Club event.

You can find the event flyer at: http://www.4cccc.org/content/vdc2012.cfm and all the pictures and video of last years show at :http://www.4cccc.org/content/vdcphotopage2011.cfm

This is an outstanding show aimed at northern clubs and owners to get the Vette out of winter storage and come south for an early spring. Activities start the night before with a Meet and Greet for all pre-registered participants that is a lot of fun and where you can finish your registration and pick up your goody bag. They will once again have an event photographer who will take a photo of your car on a blank backdrop when you enter the show and later can have framed picture completed with your choice of backgrounds. No purchase is required but this an nice opportunity to have a professional photo of your Vette done.

The event is in the parking lot of Tanger Outlet Mall and it is a easy walk to several Restaurants on the perimeter of the mall. Following the show I am planning on having dinner at Hyman's Seafood in Old Downtown Charleston for those that would like to join us. This is one of the best Seafood Restaurants on the East Coast. See the menu here: http://www.hymanseafood.com/files/file/Hymans_Seafood_Menu.pdf

This will be a two night event as we will leave sometime Friday morning of the 20th and return on Sunday the 22nd. I have blocked 12 rooms at the Fairfield Inn & Suites that is also opposite the mall. The hotel is just a year old so is fully up to date. We have a room rate of $125 per night when you refer to Classic Glass Corvette Club. The phone number is
