

Apalachee Corvette Meet Up

I am one of the newer members of CGCC and live in Lawrenceville. As you know, two teachers and two students were killed by a mass shooting on September 4, so a car show has been organized by the Georgia Cruise-Ins and Car Shows. My husband and I will be attending the Apalachee Benefit Car Show and I am the lead on this event for our club

What: Apalachee Benefit Car Show
When: Sunday, September 22, 2024

Where: Meet up 12:30 pm at the Chevron Gas Station at 703 Kilcrease Rd, Auburn, GA 30011, right off of Highway 29 and we'll drive over together. I'll be in the pearl white 2023 Corvette with my husband in the red Porsche 911. The car show is being held at The Home Depot in Bethlehem. The event planner admin suggested we get there early to park together as they are expecting many cars. We'll leave the Chevron Station at 12:45 to get to the event by 1:00 pm.

Entry fee is $20 cash per car. No debit/credit/digital forms of payment will be accepted.

Bring your chairs and drinks. Not sure if there will be food so maybe bring some snacks if you will be staying for a while.

If you won't be able to attend, you can check out this 11Alive news link to donate.
